GENERAL ALGER'S VISIT AND WHAT IS

There will be a great number of visitors in Wichita from the towns and cities of Southern Kansas on the occasion of General Alger and Mrs. Logan's visit next week. It is desired by the Garfield Post anything for tickets. To compass this and A rather modest looking plant is that of to get the full benefit of the occasion it will be necessary for our merchants and business men generally and also prominent merchants of the city will be especially benefited by the great crowd. The tickets are only $1.50 each, so that any business man can take from one to ten tickets, to give out, if he sees proper, to his friends who will be in the city that day. If all will take hold it will make light work, and the committee will be around this morning, trusting a quick and hearty response from every one whom they may determine to approach. The board of trade will pay their part of the expenses, and the will pay their part of the expenses, and the other expenses, which the tickets will cover, ought all to be provided for in a few hours.

March 29, on Siberia. Scats are on sale as Hyde & Humble.

The annals of the world's history will scarce furnish another instance where a man, single handed and alone, has so fearless'ly and faithfully exposed a gigantic wrong and cruelty to the eyes of the whole world. Such work must bear fruition, and if these now suffering under the galling and deadly yoke of Russian despotism reap no other benefit than that already derived from the sympathy and tenderness bestowed upon them by Mr. Kennan, and his faithful bearing of letters and messlages to their loved ones at the risk of his own life, others, perhaps, may be saved from a like fate when Russia, powerful and impregnable in her pride though she be, shall at length feel the weight of indignation, scorn and contumely which the whole civilized world heaps upon her for this crying shame and evil. All honor, then, to Mr. Kennan, who, by his untiring effort, has revealed the hidden horrors of Siberian exile, and who possesses the beave, sourit, and physical exile, and who possesses brave spirit and physical ence which catried him sfully through an enterprise
